NTSCH Program Announcement

July 20, 2004 Tuesday 7:00 – 9:00 pm

Viewing of a videotape: The Artistry of Milton H. Erickson, M.D. Part 2

This is an opportunity to see the seldom seen second part of the video of the patient Monde that was seen on the Jan. 27, 2004 meeting. Dr. Erickson's goals during Part 2 are to teach Nick and Monde about the existence and validity of their experiences and processes as well as helping them to learn to use them constructively. A variety of clinical techniques are demonstrated such as direct and indirect inductions and suggestions as well as how to use speech changes and body language and much more. Please join use. A group discussion will follow the videotape.

A SCRIPT OF THE VIDEOTAPE will be provided at the meeting.

CEUs

are offered at all meetings for a fee for nonmembers.

Who May Attend:

Attendance is restricted to professionals with a minimum of a Masters degree in a health related field and to students in a program that is expected to conclude in the same.
