

Fall Workshop

September 7, 8, 9

Friday 12 – 6:30pm

Saturday 8 - 5pm

Sunday 11-6:30pm

2018

Meeting Location:
Argosy University - 2nd Floor

5001 LBJ Fwy, Dallas, TX 75244
Northwest intersection with Toll road

Learning Hypnosis Experientially with Local Talent Nine Clinicians Demonstrate Their Skills

Mary Ellen Bluntzer, MD

Friday 12:15-3:15 (3 CEUs)

An Experience in Accessing Creative Internal Resources

Includes Information, Exercise & Demonstration about Creative Ways to Access Inner Resources

- Internal Medicine Private Practice
- Addictions, Pain Management, & Difficult Diagnoses
- Uses Science to Explain the Confusion of Life
- 8 Years of Teaching Hypnosis Internationally

Roxanna Erickson-Klein, PhD, LPC

Friday 3:30-6:30 (3 ETHICS CEUs)

Ethical Responses to the Unexpected in Hypnotherapy

Includes Information, Exercise & Demonstration about Ethical Responses to Unexpected Scenarios Occurring in Clinical Hypnotherapy Practice

- Private Counseling Practice Treating Adults with a Variety of Concerns.
- Special Training and Credentials for Treatment of Addictions
- Teacher, Author, Speaker with a Lifetime of Experience in Hypnosis
- The Current President of the NTSCH & ASCH Approved Consultant

Saturday 8:00-11:00 (3 CEUs)

Using Classic Children's Stories to Cross the Affect Bridge for Healing

Tracy Payton-Watson, LPC

Includes Information, Exercise, & Demonstration of How Conversations & Simple Stories Can Help Clients to Access Forgotten Wounds & Resources

- Psychotherapist In Private Practice
- Expertise in Teaching
- Broad-base of Wisdom in Psychodynamic Approaches
- A Lifetime of Experiences in Hypnosis

Jim Malatich, LCDC

Saturday 11:15-12:15 (1 CEU)

Hypnosis as an Open Door for Treating Addictions

Includes Information & Demonstration about treatment of addictions with hypnosis

- Executive Officer of Hope's Door New Beginning Center
- Systemic and Family Systems Orientation
- Trained in the Milan Approach in Italy
- Certified in Hypnosis by the ASCH

NTSCH Fall Workshop

September 8, 9, 10 2017

5001 LBJ Fwy, Dallas, TX 75244

Meeting Location: Argosy University - 2nd Floor

Northwest intersection with Toll road

Elena Frolov, LPC

Saturday 12:30-2:30 (2 CEUs) Body & Mind: Clinical Hypnosis for Post-Surgical Orthopedic Rehabilitation

This Presentation will Include a Demonstration with a Subject Learning to Walk After an Accident.

- In Private Practice
- Skilled in Working with Individuals Across the Lifespan
- Works on Inter-Disciplinary Health Teams
- Approved Consultant for the ASCH with Eight Years Clinical Practice

Saturday 2:45-5:45 (3 CEUs)

Delivery of Post-Hypnotic Suggestions in a "Thinking Break"

This Presentation will Include a Demonstration and an Exercise that Illustrates a Framework for Creative Responses to Client Needs

- Solution Focused Private Practice
- Children through Young Adults, Individual and Group work
- Adjunct Professor at Texan Christian University
- Integrated Hypnosis Into Her Practice Over a Five-year Period

Katie Ottone, LPC

Sunday 12:00-3:00 (3 Multi-Cultural CEUs)

Metaphors and Language: a Multi-Cultural View

Alejandra Diaz, Psych

This presentation will include a demonstration and an Exercise that Illustrates Commonalities and Universal Principles across Cultural Identities

- Maintains a Bi-Lingual Private Practice
- Extensive Experience in Treating Domestic Violence
- International Teacher of Hypnosis
- Trained in both Classical Techniques and Ericksonian Techniques

Sunday 3:15-4:15 (1 CEU)

Circular Questioning: The Hypnotherapist as a Detective

This Presentation is Information about Methods of Preserving the Integrity of Memory as the Hypnotherapist Seeks to Reclaim Lost Information.

- Broad-based Private Practice
- Special Training in Working with First Responders
- Integrates Cognitive Approaches with Hypnotic Techniques
- Treasurer of the NTSCH and Approved Consultant for the ASCH

Steve Bell, LPC

Ellen Simon, LPC

Sunday 4:30-6:30 (2 CEUs) Meet & Dialogue with Your Inner Guide

This Presentation Demonstrates with a Live Subject the Use of Interactive Hypnosis to Overcome Personal Concerns and Access Personal Resources.

- Private Practice Working with People Across the Lifespan
- Board Certified in Biofeedback and Neurofeedback
- Certified in a Variety of Energy and Movement Therapies
- Credentialed Member, Academy for Integrative Pain Management
- Over 20 Years Experience Practicing Hypnotherapy

NTSCH Fall Workshop

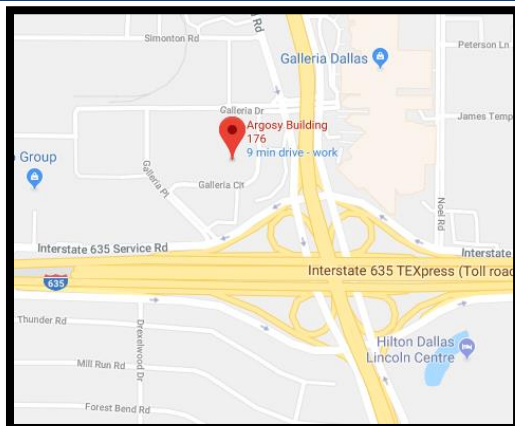

September 8, 9, 10 2017

Registration:

- ❖ Full Program (includes dues) $200
- ❖ Single day or Speaker
Membership $35 + $10 per CEU offered
- ❖ A Few Scholarships are available

Workshop Fee includes:

- ❖ 20 CEU Hrs
(inc 3 Hrs Ethics & 3 Hrs Multicultural)
- ❖ Hypnosis Credit Hrs approved by ASCH
- ❖ NTSCH membership for 2019
- ❖ Continental Breakfasts & Light Lunches

Argosy University at Heritage Square

- ❖ North of 635 LBJ
- ❖ West of North Dallas Tollway
- ❖ Twin Seven-Story Tall Glass Buildings
- ❖ Argosy Name on the Top of the Western Building
- ❖ Free Parking

-----Tear & Mail Form with Check-----

In Compliance with American Society of Clinical Hypnosis Standards, Enrollment is Restricted to Individuals with a Graduate Degree in Health Sciences or Individuals Actively Enrolled in Graduate Studies

Name: _____ Degree _____

Mailing address: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

- Full Workshop: $200 Includes 2019 NTSCH Membership
- 2019 Membership: $35 (Required for Individuals Who Attend Single Speakers or Days)
- Single Speakers or Days: Fee of $10 per CEU
- Certificates Will Be Distributed at the Conclusion of Each Program

Amount included: _____

Register as early as possible to help NTSCH

Mail form to:

Steve Bell, LPC: 6118 Eagle Nest Drive, Garland, TX 75044

To reserve your position & pay separately, or

For any questions related to the workshop call, email, or text:

Alejandra Diaz: 214-620-4637 or alediaz73@gmail.com

Roxanna Erickson-Klein: 214-729-7937 or Rericksonklein@gmail.com